

Legislative Update January 11, 2019

SECTION 1: GENERAL

Well, we survived the first full week of the New Year and the 66th North Dakota Legislative Assembly. The governor announced that he's again declining most of his salary for the 2019-2021 biennium and, while I considered doing the same, I will again accept any remuneration provided. My announcement did not make the news.

Governor Burgum and his staff have been much more active participants in committee hearings thus far this session as compared to 2017. I suppose that's to be expected given this is really the first budget introduction for the governor. He even testified for a half hour Wednesday before the House Appropriations Committee's Education and Environment Division outlining his Legacy Fund proposal to build the Teddy Roosevelt Presidential Library at Medora.

An old friend visited the Capitol early this session. North Dakota's Sunday Closing law was again a headlining act as the House Industry, Business and Labor Committee received testimony on HB 1097 that would allow retailers to open on Sunday mornings. It will again be the subject of great debate this session. We all know the arguments on both sides of this issue and it will continue to appear until it passes. I'm told they have the votes this time and the governor has already signaled that he supports the repeal. We shall see.

It was "distributed ledger technology" Tuesday in the House IBL Committee with a number of bills and a couple resolutions addressing the potential benefit of distributed ledger technology and blockchain implementation and utilization in state government. The likely endgame for this session seems to be a request to Legislative Management to study the potential benefits of implementation and possibly approval of a pilot project within a yet to be identified agency. There were a number of overwhelmed gazes from committee members – and me.

ICBND's collaborative bill regarding notification from ag suppliers relative to potential Ag Supplier Liens is HB 1220. It received its first reading this week and was assigned to the House Agriculture Committee for hearing the week of January 28. We were hopeful it could be shepherded through the House Industry, Business and Labor Committee, but there's a new majority leader in town who also happens to be in the agricultural supply business and directed the bill to the Ag Committee. We're working with potential supporting parties, opposing parties and committee members in articulating our case. As introduced, HB 1220 would require an ag supplier to send an authenticated notification to the holder of a conflicting security interest of record which states the ag supplier may acquire an Ag Supplier Lien in the crops, ag products, or livestock of the debtor in an amount that exceeds $50,000. The holder of the conflicting security interest must receive the notification no later than 20 days after supplies were furnished.

SECTION 2: BILL UPDATES FROM ICBND "PRIORITY" TRACKING LIST

SB 2093 – is the Department of Financial Institution's (DFI) "housekeeping bill". Not much in the bill related directly to community banking other than some helpful modernization language. ICBND testified in support of the bill in the Senate IBL Committee and it received no opposing testimony. The committee provided a 6-0 “do pass” recommendation and it ultimately received similar treatment on the Senate floor Wednesday with a 47-0 affirmative vote.

SB 2098 – is Bank of North Dakota’s bill requesting flexibility in its rural residential mortgage loan program by eliminating some of the prescriptive loan terms that currently exist in statute. The bill did not alter the other provisions of the program including the requirements that it only be utilized in situations where private sector mortgage loan services are not reasonably available and can only be originated if referred by a local financial institution. As directed by the ICBND Legislative Committee, I testified in support of the bill. It received a 6-0 “do pass” recommendation from the Senate IBL Committee and a 47-0 “yes” vote from the full Senate on Thursday.

HB 1008 – is DFI’s budget bill and was heard before the House Appropriations Committee’s Government Operations Division on Tuesday. This was the “first pass” overview of the bill and Commissioner Kruse was very prepared and did an excellent job in her testimony. I testified in support of the bill and more generally the agency itself. I reminded the committee that DFI is a special funds agency whose funding is predominantly (~80%) provided by community banks through examination fees. I went on to state that adequate resources for the agency are important in difficult agricultural time when it’s critical to have seasoned, well trained examiners who understand our member banks. No action was taken and a second hearing is scheduled for next Friday.

HB 1019 – is the budget bill for the state board for career and technical education. The part of that bill that is of interest to us is the Adult Farm Management Program. The program personnel have been extremely active in ICBND’s Ag Lending School, and more importantly provide a valued service to our member bank’s ag customers. No action was taken during the House Appropriations Committee’s Education and Environment Division hearing Wednesday. We will continue to remind policymakers of the importance of this program especially in a challenging ag market.

HB 1067 – relates to municipal bid requirements. Currently, a municipality may not issue bonds in an amount exceeding $100,000 without first advertising for bids. This nominal amount in code goes back to the 1970’s. HB 1067, as introduced, would have increased that nominal amount to $1 million. The House Political Subdivisions Committee heard the bill last Friday and amended the bill by reducing the requested amount to $750,000. The amended bill received a 14-0 “do pass” recommendation and passed the full Senate yesterday on a 85-4 vote. This is a good bill for community banking as it will provide some flexibility for municipalities to directly negotiate with their local community bank for small issuances.

HB 1110 – is a bill introduced at the request of the Commission on Uniform State Laws related to adoption of the Revised Uniform Law on Notarial Acts. Long story short, the bill allows for (but doesn’t mandate) remote notary services. Minnesota and Montana both have implemented this and South Dakota has a bill in the process. I didn’t testify on this bill, but I think it will be a good thing for member bank customers. The House Judicial Committee has not taken action yet as amendments were offered from the Land Title Association.
