

Legislative Update April 16, 2021

SECTION 1: GENERAL

Conference committees and floor sessions consume the vast majority of time these days at the Capitol. For those legislators that have wrapped up their conference committee work, there's a lull in the action. But this morning there remained about 75 bills still in some form of the conference committee process as legislators work to reconcile differing versions of bills endorsed by both chambers and report them back to the chambers. Some of course have been kicked out of committee and simply need concurrence and a vote, but many others still have unresolved differences in committee. During conclusion of the House Floor session yesterday afternoon, Majority Leader Pollert did warn members to keep next Saturday open on their schedules for potential assembly. The obvious inference from his comments is that they might finish up business on Legislative Day 73. Lots could happen between now and then.

This week was another good week for House Bill 1175 which is a high priority for ICBND. HB 1175 is the bill that provides liability protections for business from Covid-related claims. As I reported numerous times, we strongly support this measure along with a coalition of other business, healthcare and manufacturing concerns. The bill landed in conference committee due to some minor language issues that needed to be addressed. Those issues have been addressed and the bill came to the floor of both chambers this week for concurrence and ultimate passage. The House on Tuesday concurred with the changes and passed the measure by a vote of 79-15 and the Senate took up the matter on Thursday passing it 40-7. Given the two-thirds majority "yay" votes, the emergency clause also passes. Finally, it is on to the governor's desk and we expect a signing ceremony to occur next week.

While we fully expect HB 1175 to be an easy one for the governor to sign, he has a number of contentious measures awaiting his review and action. Some of those so far include the bill (often referred to as the transgender bill) that would prohibit public K-12 schools from knowingly allowing a student to participate on a school-sponsored athletic team exclusively for the opposite sex (but allows girls to play on boys' teams), the measure to allow the Ten Commandments to be posted in schools and of course the legislation that would prevent the governor and state health officer from mandating face coverings. And there will be more difficult decisions coming his way. I have to believe some vetoes are in the works. While he remains pretty tight lipped on most legislation, Governor Burgum has indicated he will sign the $680 million bonding bill even though it's just over half the amount that he had proposed in his budget.

Finally, a subject that is near and dear to my heart was discussed on the House Floor Monday with the assembly taking up Senate Bill 2063. The bill as amended sought to establish a new state-owned trophy (to replace Nickel Trophy) that would reside with the winner of the UND-NDSU regular season football game which is a thing again now that they are back in the same conference. The bill also sought to provide permanent residence for the actual (and retired) Nickel Trophy in the North Dakota Heritage Center where it currently resides. The bill failed as some fun-haters decided this (and the $9900 proposed to fund it) wasn't a high priority for state government. That's probably fair but you could find $9900 in the lint trap of what will be a nearly $16 billion budget for the upcoming biennium. While recent history of this series is not in the favor of my beloved UND football program, I feel compelled to point out that the 65-year Nickel-winning record will forever lie on the side of the good guys (35-30). By now you can probably tell I'm struggling for new and interesting material. Have a great weekend!

SECTION 2: OTHER BILL UPDATES FROM ICBND “PRIORITY” TRACKING LIST

HB 1323 – is the mask mandate bill I referenced above. It was amended to protect the rights of businesses on the Senate Floor last week so that it now only prohibits state elected officials including the governor and the state appointed health officer from issuing mask mandates. The House concurred with the changes this week and voted 67-24 to approve the bill effectively creating a bit of a showdown with the governor now. ICBND doesn't espouse an opinion on the bill as passed but we did oppose it previously because of the restrictive effects on businesses.

SB 2014 – is the Industrial Commission Budget which includes the Bank of North Dakota and the North Dakota Housing Finance Agency and other issues under the purview of the Industrial Commission. Not surprising, the House Appropriations Committee took some further cuts to the budget. Our primary concern is that the Bank of North Dakota budget be approved with the appropriate number of full-time employees to provide an efficient and effective evaluation services program to serve the needs of member banks. As it is with every session, this budget bill headed to conference committee this week as the Senate did not concur with House changes and it's a significant budget bill.

SB 2130 – was kicked out of conference committee this week. This bill requires a cost-benefit analysis for any mandated health insurance measures and as amended also provides that any mandate does not apply to a health insurance plan that is a high-deductible plan if that mandate would cause the policy to fail to qualify as a high-deductible health plan under federal law. This amendment is important to ICBND and its members who participate in the ND Banks Benefit Trust Plan. ICBND supported the amended bill. The conference committee report was accepted in the Senate yesterday and the bill received a 46-1 passing vote. This morning the House also concurred with the conference committee report and unanimously passed the bill on the floor vote.
